Mrs. Strong Will Represent Club At Convention

Mrs. Grace Strong, Jr. Past President of the local Business and Professional Women's Club will leave Saturday, the 24th, to represent the Club as its delegate to the National Convention which will be held in Washington, D.C., July 25-29.

Accompanying Mrs. Strong will be Mrs. Katherine Kimberlin, Alternate; Mrs. Bernice Combs, Mrs. Bonnie Seale; Mrs. Florine Adkins and Mrs. Aileen E. Combs.

The opening Session will be held Sunday night at the Sheraton Park Hotel where all meetings will be held and the first business will be Monday morning.

Mrs. Dorothy Ford, California, National President, will preside at all business meetings. Election of National Federation Officers will be held on Tuesday, July 27, and at the Banquet on Thursday night, the Installation and Reception for the newly elected officers will be held. Mrs. Helen Kraus, Leslie, Florida, president-elect, will be installed as the new president.

One of the highlights of the meeting will be a Tea given by Mrs. Perle Mesta in honor of the 1964-65 Gold Card Members of the Federation on Saturday afternoon and Sunday afternoon. A Gold Card Member must have shared the Federation with 5 new members during the year and Hazard has one member, Mrs. Katherine Kimberlin, who has already received her invitation to Mrs. Mesta's Tea on Sunday afternoon.

Other recognition given the Gold Card Members is that they will be given preferential seating on Opening Night and will be introduced in a dramatic and unusual way at the Opening Business Session.

3,751 new members were brought into the Federation by the Gold Card Members this past year.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Moore

Rozeboom-Moore Nuptial Vows Said

Miss Connie Rozeboom spoke nuptial vows with Mr. Jim Moore on June 4 in the Ebenezer Reformed Church, Holland, Michigan.

Bride's Attire

Miss Connie Rozeboom, daughter of the Reverend and Mrs. Nickolas Rozeboom, Holland, selected a floor-length gown of organza styled with a fitted bodice and short, caplike sleeves. The bell shaped skirt was complemented with seed pearls and lace applique motif on the front.

The bridal dress was highlighted with a capelet train having insets of seed pearls at the neckline. The train, of chantilly lace, fell from the shoulders. The shoulder-length veil was topped with a small pillbox hat trimmed with seed pearls.

A white Bible topped with white tea roses, stephanotis and ivy was carried by the bride.

Mrs. Nyla Heerema of Iowa City, Iowa, attended her sister as matron-of-honor. A yellow floor-length gown of chiffon over taffeta was selected for the attendants. The formal was designed with a scoop neckline, empire waist, and featured a box-pleat train flowing from a bow at the back of the waist. Three daisies topped a circular veil for a headpiece. A spray of daisies and ferns completed the attire.

The guests at the reception were from Iowa, Wisconsin, Kentucky, California, Minnesota, Illinois and Michigan.

Wedding Trip
For the wedding trip to Canada the bride chose a navy linen dress trimmed in red and white and wore navy, red and white accessories.

The bride and groom have been attending Central College, Pella, Iowa. They both plan to enroll at the University of Kentucky, Lexington, Kentucky, this fall.

Napier Football Drills To Begin On Monday

Charles Hall, new head football coach at M. C. Napier, has called for his first practice session at the area's largest high school.

All boys interested in playing football at Napier this fall are asked to be at the M. C. Napier Athletic Building at 1:30 p.m. tomorrow afternoon for the purpose of getting to know the new boss.

Hall formerly coached junior varsity ball at Woodford County High in Versailles. In two years as JV mentor Hall went undefeated and won the Central Kentucky Conference JV crown the past two years.

The new coach is a 1958 graduate of Whitesburg High School where he played under present coach Gardner Bates. Hall graduated from the University of Kentucky on a Commerce major in 1962.

He is married to the former Julia Holbrook of Whitesburg. Like her husband Mrs. Hall is a graduate of Whitesburg and UK.

The Halls have one son, Gregory who is 2 years old. They will make their home in Airport Gardens.

Hall replaces Ed Wilson who tutored the Napier footballers for the past three seasons. Wilson is currently employed at a local refining company.

Around 50 boys are expected for Monday's opening practice session with a whole host of returnees from a year ago. The top returnee will be senior halfback Jim McAlarnis. Mac is a speedster with a lot of desire and determination.

Mike Warfield, a 6-0, 245 lb. tackle, who didn't play football last year after winning the Most Valuable Player Award at Napier as a Freshman, will be back in uniform once the season opens.

Napier opens its 1965 season on August 21 with the Wheelwright Trojans at Wheelwright. The Trojans are playing under new coach Don Daniels who replaces Ray Brackett.

Guy Olinger is back at Napier for his fifth year as assistant coach and Albert Combs, head cage mentor, will also be on hand to help out.

Man Arrested

He was fully in support of the AGSLP.

He cautioned the group to proceed with caution, to avoid violence, and then predicted a victory for the group, in time.

Merl Sone, candidate for Knott County Judge, pledged his support to the AGSLP, saying "I'm one of you."

Bobby Morgan, candidate for County Attorney in Knott County, congratulated the group for its united effort and said "I'm with you, I'll help you in any way I can."

A deep-mine coal operator, Leslie Howard of London, also spoke to the gathering.

He criticized the Tennessee Valley Authority for knocking the bottom out of coal prices. He said he realized his workers needed higher pay, and that he would like to give them all a $5 a day raise immediately, but couldn't as long as TVA pays only $2.25 a ton for coal.

He accused TVA of "using every pressure in the book to drive the price of coal to the bottom."

His theory on strip mining was, "if you can't replace the mountain, don't touch it."

Suspenseful Drama "36 Hours" Starts Sunday At Grand Vue Drive-In Here

Said to be based on an actual plot perpetrated by the Nazis during World War II, Metro-Goldwyn Mayer's "36 Hours," starring James Garner, Eva Marie Saint and Rod Taylor, is a drama of terrifying suspense.

The thirty-six hours of the title is the time period in which the outcome of the war might have been fatefully changed if an ingenious scheme devised by the Germans to gain vital information about the Normandy invasion had succeeded.

In the crucial hours before the invasion, U. S. Intelligence officer Major Pike (Garner) arrives in Lisbon from London fully briefed on the plans for D-Day. Led into a trap, he is captured and put under heavy sedation, and then is flown to Bad Ailstadt, Bavaria, in a coffin.

In a remarkable project, the Nazis have given the isolated resort a complete and deceiving transformation. Sign posted "U. S. Military Hospital, Allied Occupation Forces," its staff, patients and equipment are identifiably G.I., including Medical Major Walter Gerber (Taylor) and Anna Hedler (Miss Saint), a young nurse who has shed all her tears as a former concentration camp prisoner.

When Pike regains consciousness, he finds that he is a considerably older looking man, as the result of extraordinary "aging" experiments performed on him while he was unconscious. He is persuaded to believe that the date is 1950, that for the past six years he has been an amnesia victim, and that the Allies have won the war. He is thus induced to talk freely about the invasion and to reveal the plans of what he believes to be a past event. However, one detail of an occurrence which happened to Pike just prior to his leaving London has eluded the wily Nazis and his suspicions are aroused. He forces the nurse to admit that the date is June 2, 1944, and with growing horror realizes what has

To tell more of the plot of "36 Hours" would rob the spectator of the unremitting suspense which helps to make this such a gripping film. Sufficient to say that both Pike and Anna Hedler become victims of a relentless persecution, one in which the German medical officer Gerber is faced with the choice of putting humanity before duty to his country. And the tense climax, in which Pike and Anna attempt to escape to the Swiss border pursued by a vicious Gestapo agent (Werner Peters), is a terrifying experience. Having discovered the date and place of the Allied invasion, what use does the enemy make of this information by which the fate of the world could hang in the balance? The answer is as explosive as it is dramatic.

"36 HOURS" is the latest collaboration of William Perlberg and George Seaton, the producer-director team who have given the screen such effective pictures as "Counterfeit Trail" and "The Bridges at Toko-Ri." The picture was photographed in Panavision, with certain exteriors filmed in Portugal and other locations shot in California at Yosemite National Park, where the American "hospital" and compound were constructed. Dimitri Tiomkin composed and conducted the musical score.

"36 Hours" Starts at the Grand Vue Theatre Sunday night.

Retired Army Man Will Teach At Hazard High

Col. Harold Banks, who retired February 1, 1965 after 22 1-2 years of service in the U.S.A.F., has returned to Hazard to reside.

Aside from the time spent on duty in the United States, Col. Banks served in England, Belgium, Japan, Korea, Morocco, and Spain.

Among the many military decorations he received while in service are four Commendation Ribbons the Bronze Star, and the Presidential Unit Citation.

Just prior to his retirement, Col. Banks was honored by being the Commander of the Weather Unit that won the Williams Award, the most outstanding weather detachment in the U.S.A.F.

Col. Banks plans to continue his life of public service by teaching chemistry and physics in the Hazard City Schools this fall. He graduated from Hazard High School in 1938 and received a B.A. degree from Lincoln Memorial University, Harrogate, Tenn., in 1942 and an M.S. degree from the University of Chicago in 1953.

He and his Spanish wife Maria Delores, will make their home in the Lothair section of Hazard.

Mrs. Bascom Smith and children, David and Kathy, are visiting the Ernest Maggard family, at Waynesburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Warren are in Louisville or a few days with their son, Terry, who is at a children's hospital for his regular checkup.

Mrs. Carlen Byrd and daughter, Joanne, have returned from a week's visit with relatives in Lexington. Miss Percilia Byrd remained in Lexington for an extended visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Price, of Haddix, were visitors in our little town last week. They are having repairs made on some of their property here.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ketron, of Dayton, Ky., and Mr. Charles Balzer, of Cincinnati, Ohio, were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Mel and other relatives here.

Miss Patsy Baker, of Faulkner Apts., Hazard, and Mrs. Ernest Fritts were co-hostess at a surprise birthday dinner for Miss Karen Fritts, Saturday evening, at 6 p.m. in the Fritts home. A cake baked by Miss Baker, in the form of a large picture hat, was cornered with yellow frosting and trimmed with white daisies. This formed the center-piece of the table. The dinner consisted of fried chicken and all the other foods that go along with it. The desert was home-grown strawberries, topped with whipped cream and a large serving of the cake. Karen received several nice gifts. Karen was born in the Fritts home 18 years ago. Dr. Lindon Combs was the attending physician.

U.S. 119 Rebuilding From Jenkins To Middlesboro Announced by Cooper

US Highway 119 will be rebuilt from Jenkins to Middlesboro as one of the main corridors in the Appalachian regional highway system. The decision to make the road a corridor was made by the Appalachian Regional Commission and was announced from Washington by Senator John Sherman Cooper.

The commission designated 17 miles of the road from Harlan to Middlesboro as a "quick start" project and set aside six million dollars to finance the work and to pay for right-of-way acquisition and engineering for the remainder of the route.

The road had been the subject of considerable controversy during the past few weeks, after it was not included in the original "quick-start" and corridor announcement and there appeared some likelihood it would not be one of the main corridors.

Cooper wrote to ARC head John Sweeney asking reconsideration and Gov. Edward T. Breathitt and Highway Commissioner Henry Ward made special appeals for inclusion of the road.

All said it would be unfair to leave Harlan and Bell counties isolated from the road network.

Members of the Harlan Chamber of Commerce picketed here last week at groundbreaking ceremonies for some new mileage on Kentucky 15 west of Whitesburg. US 119, which crosses Pine Mountain just outside Whitesburg, is the main route south from Letcher County through Kentucky.

Cooper, who sponsored the Appalachian bill and served as its floor manager in the Senate, pointed out again that the road network makes Whitesburg and Letcher County a major crossroad in the Appalachian system. Kentucky 15 (the extension of the Mountain Parkway) US 119 and US 23, all to be rebuilt, meet in Letcher Co.

Whitesburg City Council Opposes Tax Increase

The Whitesburg City Council has gone on record as opposing any increase in city taxes.

The council directed City Attorney Leroy Fields to prepare an ordinance designed to reduce city tax rates in proportion to any increase in property assessments which may result from a recent state court of appeals ruling.

LET'S LOOK IT OVER

By Gov. Edward T. Breathitt

Frankfort—

One of the basic pledges in the platform on which I ran for Governor two years ago was to promote the conservation of Kentucky's natural resources.

The hard looks I have just taken at strip mine operations in both Eastern and Western Kentucky prompt me to broaden that pledge.

I have instigated action to try to relieve the sorry situation in which the owners of surface land in Eastern Kentucky find themselves because of the so-called broad form, or long-form deeds to mineral rights.

The Courts have held that the mineral-rights deeds, drawn up 50 or more years ago, give their owners the power to strip the surface of the land to get out the coal beneath, despite the protests of owners of the surface who may be ruined in the process.

In furtherance of my determination to alleviate this situation, if at all possible, I have asked the Attorney General to intervene in a Knott County court case to test again at length the legality of the long-form deeds.

I have assigned a lawyer from my office to assist in the suit, outside counsel will be hired if necessary, and we are prepared to go even to the U.S. Supreme Court for a final interpretation.

In the Knott County case, 19 land owners were enjoined from interfering with mining operations which they said caused silt, stone and other debris to wash onto their property.

The landowners asked the court through their attorney to dissolve the restraining order and to declare the land off-limits to the coal operators on the grounds that the old long-form deeds should not apply to strip and auger mining. Strip and auger mining were unknown when most of the deeds were written.

As a result of my tour of the strip and auger mining section of Eastern Kentucky, I have directed the Department of Natural Resources to adopt regulations aimed at solving the problems caused by mining on steep slopes and other practices which result in damage to homes, streams, wildlife and vegetation.

I was pleased to note on my trip to Western Kentucky that worthwhile reclamation work had been done under provisions of the strip-mine law passed by the 1964 General Assembly.

It was apparent, however, that we have not done all we must do, and with that in mind I ordered a new regulation that will require flattening into roll terrain the hills of earth stripped off to get at the coal. This would eliminate deep pits and valleys that hold acid water.

The inspection trips proved to me that it is vitally important that the State act with responsibility in the whole area of strip and auger mining to protect the rights of the citizens of today as well as those of tomorrow. It is increasingly apparent that further action will be necessary at the 1966 Legislature.

My determination to continue to work for a Federal strip mining law was also strengthened by the inspection trips. Because some states have no laws or lax laws, Kentucky's coal firms, operating under strict laws, are at a competitive disadvantage.

I have asked the Tennessee Valley Authority, as well as private utilities to pay Kentucky producers a higher price for the coal they use, to help bear the cost of reclaiming the land so severely damaged by strip mine operations.

My thanks go out to all who have supported me and continue to support me in these efforts to save our land.

'QUICK-START' ROAD DEDICATED—Pleased with the prospect of new roads for Eastern Kentucky, Governor Edward T. Breathitt, at the controls, shifted the Appalachian program's first project, a five-mile stretch of improved road, into gear near Isom, Letcher County. Assisting him were, left to right, Dr. Alec Spencer, West Liberty, chairman of the Eastern Kentucky Regional Planning Commission; Highway Commissioner Henry Ward; John Whisman (partially hidden), Kentucky's representative on the Appalachian Regional Commission, a Federal-interstate development agency set up by Congress earlier this year; and T. Lawrence Jones, deputy administrator of the U. S. Bureau of Public Roads, Washington.

Hardshell Native, Dora Combs, 49

Dies In Cincinnati Hospital

Dora Combs, 49, of Cincinnati, died Saturday, July 17, in Christ Hospital in Cincinnati. She was a native of Hardshell, Kentucky.

Survivors include four sons, Glenn, Jess, Donald, and Billy Combs, all of Cincinnati; two sisters, Clara Begley and Ethel Rizopoulos; and three brothers, James, Hobart, and Earl Noble.

Funeral services were held Tuesday, July 20, at 11 a.m. at Harvey Bend Church, Hardshell, with Harold Harvey officiating.

Burial was in Harvey Bend Cemetery with Maggard Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

Groundbreaking Ceremonies To Be Held Near Louisa July 23

Federal, state and local officials, wearing bright yellow construction helmets, will push sharp spades into the eastern Kentucky soil near Louisa during groundbreaking ceremonies for the Louisa Bypass at 2:00 p.m., July 23.

Sponsored by the U. S. 23 Association, the ceremony will be held at the north edge of Louisa, near U. S. 23. Herman Wheeler, President of the Association, will be Master of Ceremonies.

The 3.09-mile, $1,881,000 Louisa Bypass and Madison Street Connector, financed with state bond money and Federal Appalachian funds, is the second Appalachian project which Kentucky has put under construction this month.

On July 6, ground was broken on Kentucky's first Appalachian project that will stretch from Isom towards Whitesburg.

The Louisa Bypass, located in Lawrence County, will begin at the junction of Kentucky 3 and U.S. 23, northwest of Louisa, and extend 2.8 miles to near the Clayton Branch Creek, just south of Louisa. The remaining quarter of a mile includes the Madison Street Connector which will begin at the junction of Clay Avenue and Madison Street in Louisa and extend west to the Louisa Bypass. Construction on the entire project will include grade, drain and bituminous concrete surfacing.

Development of plans, right-of-way acquisition, relocation of utilities and construction of the Madison Street Connector, which amounts to $667,000, is being financed with 50 per cent bond money and 50 per cent Federal funds.

Construction costs on the Bypass alone, estimated at $1,214,000 will be financed with 70 per cent Federal Appalachian funds and 30 per cent state bond money. "The beginning of construction on the Louisa Bypass—the second Appalachian project to be started in 17 days—is clear proof that your Highway Department is going to build roads all across Kentucky just as fast as funds are available," Highway Commissioner Henry Ward said.

Myrthe Hurley, Dies In Lexington

Myrthe Baker Hurley, 62, of Dayton, Ohio, died Thursday, July 15, at Good Samaritan Hospital in Dayton.

A native of Combs, Kentucky, she is survived by her husband, James E. Hurley; one son, Harold, of Dayton; one sister, Mary Jane Woods; and one brother, George D. Baker, both of Jacksonville, Florida.

Graveside services were held Monday, July 19, at 3 p.m. at Brewer Cemetery, Airport Gardens, with Luther M. Deaton officiating.

Burial was in Brewer Cemetery with Maggard Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

Chalmer Lindon, President of the Hazard Lions Club represented the Hazard Club at the Lions International's 48th annual convention in Los Angeles, California July 6 through 10. Mr. Lindon traveled with many of the approximate 150 delegates from Kentucky by chartered plane from Louisville to Los Angeles.

Convention activities got under way Wednesday, July 7, at the huge Los Angeles Sports Center with the registration of about 36,000 delegates representing 18,901 clubs in 129 countries or geographical locations in the world with a membership of 740,170, the largest Civic Organization in the world.

The colorful international parade covering about two miles of glamorous Hollywood Boulevard began at 7:30 P. M. Wednesday evening and continued for about three hours. The Parade featured colorful floats, bands and marchers of many countries and nationalities.

A tremendous show sponsored by the Lions of Florida to honor incoming President of Lions International, Walter Campbell, was staged at the Sports Arena Thursday night. The feature attraction on Friday evening was the Lions International show that featured famous singing stars Nelson Eddy and Gail Sherman.

Convention activities were concluded Saturday with the election of International Officers and a speech on world affairs by former Vice President of the United States, Richard M. Nixon.

THE CROSS WAS HIS OWN

They borrowed a bed to lay his head
When Christ the Lord came down;
They borrowed the ass in the mountain pass
For Him to ride to town;
But the crown that He wore and the Cross that He bore.
Were His own—
The Cross was His own.

He borrowed the bread when the crowd He fed
On the grassy mountain side,
He borrowed the dish of broken fish
With which He satisfied.
But the crown that He wore and the Cross that He bore
Were His own—
The Cross was His own.

He borrowed the ship in which to sit
To teach the multitude;
He borrowed a nest in which to rest—
He had never a home so rude;
But the crown that He wore and the Cross that He bore
Were His own—
The Cross was His own.

He borrowed a room on His way to the tomb
The Passover Lamb to eat;
They borrowed a cave for Him a grave,
They borrowed a winding sheet.
But the crown that He wore and the Cross that He bore
Were His own—
The Cross was His own.

Children Hospital Campaign Nears Final Stage

The 1965 Operating Fund Campaign of Kosair Crippled Children Hospital in Louisville is nearly ready to enter its final stages. The Campaign is over halfway toward this year's goal of $225,000, but there is still almost another $100,000, that must be raised if the campaign is to be a success. It is in raising the rest of this money that Kosair Hospital urgently needs the unflinching and generous support of the people of Kentucky.

For Thirty-eight years the Hospital a child must meet Kosair Hospital has been relentlessly treating the indigent crippled children of Kentucky. Thirty-eight years that have seen over eight thousand crippled children from every county in our state enter the "House of Dreams" asking Kosair to help them to walk and to run.

In order to be admitted to Children,

After selection these children are treated free regardless of race or religion. But just because these children are treated free of charge, don't think for one minute that they are charity cases. It is never charity when a good, sound investment has been made today which will pay dividends in the future. The vast majority of patients have left Kosair to become productive members of their respective communities. But without Kosair's help many of these patients would have had to spend their lives as invalids unable to walk to use their hands or legs and in some cases even unable to change positions.

However, the good that Kosair Hospital has done for these crippled children is no more meaningful than what the people of Kentucky have done for the Hospital itself. Without the generous support of the citizens of our state there would still be over 8,000 crippled children in Kentucky who would have never been able to take that first step toward a normal life.

Kosair Hospital can't do the job alone. It needs your help now and will continue to need it as long as crippled children are born in the state of Kentucky. Now is the time to lend your support to the indigent crippled children of our state by mailing a contribution to the Kosair Crippled Children Hospital, 982 Eastern Parkway in Louisville. Do it today!

Be one of the thousands of other Kentuckians who are bending down today so that a crippled child may stand straight tomorrow.

Local Excise Tax Savings Estimated

How much will the recently-enacted excise cuts amount to in Perry County? How much will local residents save, on the average, per year?

Some idea of what the tax changes and manufacturers will reductions will mean, in terms pass on to the consumer the of the individual, is brought out in figures obtained from the Treasury Department and from other sources.

The amount that a person will save is directly related to the amount that he usually spends per year for goods and services. If his outlays are large, his savings will be proportionally large.

Families in Perry County, on the basis of what they spent for consumer goods in 1964, shelled out some $1,202,000 in Federal excise taxes, it is estimated.

They encountered such taxes every time they made a telephone call or went to the movies or bought electric light bulbs, leather goods, cigarettes, gasoline, refrigerators, beauty products, watches or a host of other items.

Throughout the State of Kentucky, excise taxes collected by the Government last year came to $1,068,344,000, the Treasury Department reports.

The amount will be reduced considerably from now on. Perry County residents' share of the immediate reductions, which will total $1.75 billion nationally, will be approximately $150,000.

And, beginning next January, they will share in an additional cut of $1.7 billion.

Within four years, excise taxes in the United States will be $4.6 billion lower than they are now. At that stage, local residents will be better off, thanks to the cuts, by about $397,000 a year, or $56 per family.

That is the way it figures out on paper. It assumes that mer-

Springtime Can Come Anytime This Year With An Electric Heat Pump

Whatever the season outside, an electric heat pump brings springtime inside the home. The temperature never varies... unless you want it to. You get gentle, warm air in winter... cool, refreshing air in summer.

With a flameless electric heat pump in your home, you have your own private "weather machine"—climate control 365 days a year. Not only does it provide a constant year-around indoor temperature, it filters the air you breathe and automatically removes excess moisture during hot, humid months. We call this "comfort conditioning."

You can be sure of the dependable quality of an electric heat pump. And your actual heating and cooling costs can be accurately calculated in advance. Check with us today for all the facts about an electric heat pump that brings "eternal spring" to your home.

Flash Flood Hits Squabble Creek

A flash flood rumbled through the Squabble Creek section in the mountain areas of Bell and Perry County early Saturday morning taking a home and the damage. Several cars and trucks with it. The mayor stated that tons of rock and dirt slid down the out and telephone service to mountain during the heavy rains.

The high waters came between 3:30 and 4 a.m. and down the hollows, some of caught some residents by surprise. One youth drowned near Middlesboro, five year old Tom-horn Post Office and the new Buckhorn School.

The Perry County Rescue Squad and the Jackson Rescue Squad worked all day Saturday and Sunday cleaning out wells and homes of the mud and debris.

Congressman Carl D. Perkins was contacted about the flooding in an effort to seek federal aid. The heavy damage was done in the Squabble Creek and Jack's Branch section, feeder streams to the Kentucky River below Buckhorn Dam.

Middlesboro in Bell County was hardest hit by the raging waters as 25 houses were destroyed in that area. Residents behind the Middlesboro flood wall are already back in their homes but the hardest hit spot was the community of Noetown outside the city limits.

Hazard Mayor Seeks Re-election; M. K. Eblen Files

Two more candidates have filed for city offices subject to September's election.

Hazard Mayor Willie Dawahare has filed papers in the Perry County Court Clerk Jessie Horn's office seeking his second term as head of the city government.

Hazard businessman M. K. Eblen also put his name on the books at the clerk's office as a candidate for the city's top office.

Mathematics Teacher Shortage In County

At a special called meeting of the Perry County Board of Education in the County Administration Building last Thursday evening the Board was asked by officials of the City of Hazard for a resolution saying the County would agree to sell its property on North Main Street for the North Main Urban Renewal Project.

Urban Renewal Director Paul Townes spoke for the city in asking the board for the reso-

Selective Service Announces Call For July 29

Local Board No. 81 of the Selective Service System has announced its pre-induction physical call for July 29. Enlistment will be held until its next meeting on August 5 to give a Fields, Kenneth Nelson Couch, final answer.

Other developments at the meeting: the school governing body hired 36 emergency teachers for the coming year. The school year.

It was learned at the meeting that there is a severe shortage of Math teachers in the county and according to School Superintendent Dennis Wooton, "they just can't be found."

There are only two teachers in the county with college degrees in Mathematics.

Classes begin in the Perry County School System on August 23.

MOUNTAIN PARKWAY IS KEY—The Mountain Parkway, shown here by heavy black line, was the key to approval of a route in the Appalachian Highway System which will connect Interstate 64 in Kentucky with Interstate Highway 77 and 81 in Virginia. Highway Commissioner Henry Ward said the fact that the Parkway is completed or under construction from Interstate 64 to Prestonsburg played a deciding role in approval of the entire east-west connection. The Mountain Parkway is complete from Interstate 64 to Salyersville, and the section from Salyersville to Prestonsburg is to open this fall. The Parkway Extension from Prestonsburg to Pikeville was approved as part of the Appalachian System.

Little League To Compete With Tri-City

Fresh from district tournament victories the Hazard Little League and 13 year old Babe Ruth League All Stars prepare to move into sub-district action this week. The Little Leaguers will be in action tomorrow afternoon at Collins Field in Hazard and the Babe Ruth Stars will see action at Elkhorn City on Thursday night.

The Little Leaguers won the right to compete in the sub-district tourney by winning the district meet held last weekend in Hyden.

The locals won their first encounter 9-1 over the Knott County All Stars behind the stout pitching of Greg Horn and home runs from Bruce Begley and Larry Asbury.

In the tourney finals Hazard downed Lower Letcher 6-1 as Bruce Begley pitched and batted the stars to the victory. Begley went all the way to gain the hill decision over Combs of Letcher.

Home runs were hit by Begley, and Wayne Whisman in the 5th inning and by Greg Horn in the 1st inning. Begley struck nine in his route going performance.

Elswick and a sacrifice by Anderson, Indiana for the Babe Ruth Regional tourney. Greg Horn will take the mound for the Hazard Little League stars tomorrow afternoon.

Turner gave up one run on three hits, struck out five and didn't walk a single batter. Hazard came up with 6 runs and 6 hits and two Jenkins errors.

Hazard-Tri Cities

The locals won this one on a nifty three hitter by Wayne Patrick.

William Turner, Larry Johnson and Patrick each had two hits to lead the winners at the plate.

Patrick walked two and struck out three in his route going effort while losing hurler Murphy walked 11 and fanned five.

William Turner of the locals was named as the Most Valuable Player for the tourney as he won the opening contest and had five hits in eight times at bat in the meet.

Hazard will now take on the winner of the Louisville District in an 8 p.m. encounter at Elkhorn City on Thursday night with Turner set to do the pitching for Hazard.

The winner of the Elkhorn City tourney will move on to

17 Perish On State Highways; 9 Die At Harlan

The State of Kentucky has just experienced one of its bloodiest weekends, traffic wise, in many years.

At last report 17 persons had died in traffic accidents on Kentucky roads since Friday.

The worst accident occurred in Harlan County at Smith, Ky., where nine people died in a two car accident.

Kentucky State Police say an auto driven by J. C. Eldridge, 34, veered into the path of an auto driven by Phillip Perkins, 24, of Chicago, Illinois.

Dead are: Perkins; J. C. Eldridge; his wife, Martha; their children James Clyde, 13, Donnie, 11, and Linda 9. Also killed were the wife and children of Earl Eldridge, brother of J.C., their names were: Delores, 23, the wife and mother; Earl Jr., 2 and Perry Lee, 10 months.

Two Survivors
The two survivors of the crash were Earl Eldridge and his small daughter Debbie Sue.

Wedding Scheduled
Perkins had visited his parents and his fiancée earlier in the day. He was scheduled to be married this week.

Kentucky State Police say they can give no reason as to what caused the accident.

Judge Overrules In Knott Court Case Testing Mineral-Right Deeds

Perry Circuit Judge Don A. Ward, acting as special judge in a Knott Circuit Court case, overruled an effort by the State of Kentucky to enter the suit testing the application of broad-form, mineral, right deeds.

He ruled that the state could have ordered the state attorney enter a strip-mining case only general's office to intervene in if it involved damage to public such cases after touring strip-property such as streams or mine operations in Eastern Kentucky.

The state has sought to reverse the present legal interpretation that the deeds give miners the right to disturb all the land necessary to reach the coal.

This was the first time the state had sought to intervene in such a case.

Gov. Edward T. Breathitt said.

NYC Program Plans Completed This Week

The Out-Of-School Program of the Neighborhood Youth Corps, under the U.S. Department of Labor, was launched in the City of Hazard and in Perry County, July 15.

On Monday, July 26, the Perry County Advisory Committee, Inc., completed signing 200 boys and girls from all parts of the county as aides for public officials, City of Hazard, City of Vicco, Mt. Mary Hospital, Hazard Appalachian Regional Hospital, Forestry Division, Buckhorn Lake State Park, City Parks, and State Highway Department.

The Program was set up to put boys and girls to work in jobs of service to their communities which allow them to stay in or return to school, or get the experience needed in today's modern world of work.

The Perry County Advisory Committee, Inc. hired a director a secretary and a book-keeper to get the Programs on its feet and to carry on all functions in accordance with the Department of Labor and to find sources of employment for these boys and girls.

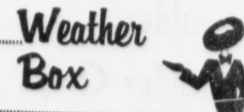

Criteria for eligibility are unemployment ages 16-21, low-income families, large medical bills, number in families sub standard homes, and type of home, owned or rented.

The local Employment Office of the Economic Security Division aided in selecting, screening, counseling, and referrals to the P.C.A.C., Inc. A five-member work-training committee selected from the Committee, made the final decision.

After a boy or girl has been placed on the job, the work-training committee will see that the enrollee does an acceptable job for the employer. Enrollees are expected to perform a quality and a quantity of work to commensurate with experience and duties of the occupation. Enrollees' conduct must be the same as that required of the employer. Work supervisors are required to report any violations to the project director. Each enrollee will work not over 30 hours per week at a rate of $1.25 per hour.

Fringe benefits such as Workmen's Compensation and Social Security will be handled through the project director and his staff.

The P.C.A.C., Inc., sponsor of the Out-of-School Program, signed agreements and contracts with the Department of Labor for the purpose of carrying out the Program. The present contract, which calls for 26 weeks of employment for each enrollee, will terminate January 11, 1966. This is con-

New Faces In Clerk's Office

Through the NYC program Perry Circuit Court Clerk Grace Strong has two new faces appearing in her office. Shown in the picture with Mrs. Strong and Kentucky State Police License Examiner Delmer Lafferty is Dora Scott, from Stormking, the first NYC'er to join Mrs. Strong's staff. Since this photo was taken another young lady has taken a job at the same location. Jenny Lee Polly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Polly of Wabaco is on the job.

ONE FELLOW I

Had the chance to talk with during this weekend was Roy "Buster" Smith and his good friend Ota. They now reside up near Indianapolis, Indiana way, Roy, Ota and their kids could tell a lot of stories about fishing. Most of them would be about me, many years Roy and I fished together on the Middle Fork River. Long time before Buckhorn Lake was impounded. Many of a mile has he paddled me on the Middle Fork, believe me I dare say that I would hate to make an estimate of the fish that he and I have caught. Above all I can recall the supper that his good wife always had when we came in, sometimes after nine at night after hitting the river about 4 A.M. Boys if you think that isn't fishing try it sometimes. Above all those Cat head biscuits of Ota's with cream gravy provided the strength for me to drive home at night. Boys fishing can get rough if you really fish. I would like this day to have a picture of all the fish that Roy Smith and I have taken from the Middle Fork of the Kentucky River. Roy is one of the very few fishermen that I have had the privilege of fishing with that would rather fish than eat. Believe me you will have to stay on your toes to keep with him. He is one of the few that still believes in throwing the hardware at them regardless of the weather. We usually got our part.

CONGRATULATIONS

Are in order to my good friend Brent

Logan up near Jeff, Ky. way, Brent boys has just celebrated his 83rd birthday. Brent still makes his garden of course his good wife works right along with him, providing she does what he says. I have heard that there was over 200 to pay honor to him on this remarkable date. Brent, on my word I believe you are going into your second childhood. That woman of yours says she can't keep you off adders and etc. You are still going strong making your garden and the like. Also you are still sharpening saws and etc. More power to you, that is what we hill billies were made out of in the first place. Its time that we were recognized as a hearty people that conquered a vast wilderness of these EASTERN KENTUCKY MTS.

ALSO IN LINE FOR CONGRATULATIONS

Is to you Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Boylen of near Ary, Ky. sorry I didn't get to take a part in this your GOLDEN ANNIVERSARY, thanks for the invitation, just happened to be out of town on this date. Attended the League of Kentucky Sportsmens Annual Convention at Paducah, Ky. From what I heard it was a nice event. May the Lord grant you many more. Seldom is there a reunion that will last for one man and woman for fifty years. This we should be very thankful for. This I know that your children do relish this opportunity to share this great honor with you. Very few families have this privilege you are one of the very few that have accomplished this feat. May the Powers of above grant you many more.

Sgt. Dixon Will Go To Okinawa

By Mrs. Ernest Fritts, Sr.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Hagans, of Middletown, Ohio, visited Mr. and Mrs. James Meadows last week. The Hagans are former residents of our town.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvi Tinaire, Mr. and Mrs. John Heyback, of Louisville, spent their vacation at the LaCittadelle in Hazard last week. They also visited Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Combs.

Misses Phyllis Perry, Donna Spencer and Sharon Combs attended a surprise farewell party at Viper Friday night in honor of Corbett Brashear, Jr., given by his grandmother, Mrs. Lillie Brashear. Corbett will be leaving soon for service in the Air Force. He will receive his basic training in Texas.

Miss Sharon Combs recently attended a three week conference for Modernizing America at the Moral Rearmament Center on Macinack Island, Michigan. The delegates participated in physical fitness programs, attended seminars on topics of world interest and listened intently to the speakers of various countries. It was a conference that should be highly commended on their confirmed stand for American youth on the direction they are taking in uniting the world in a common and worthwhile purpose.

Tech. Sgt. Lee Dixon and children, of Valdosta, Georgia, are spending their vacation here with relatives. Sgt. Dixon will be leaving for Okinawa in the near future where he will be stationed for 2 1/2 years. His family will follow later. He is a weather forecaster for the government. Lee, better known to most of us, is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. I. D. Dixon. We are very proud of his success and have always claimed him as one of our adopted sons. We predict for him a great future.
